A Sumptuous Banquet

Hon. A. D. Cole was in attendance at the Masonic banquet at Dover Monday and reports an enjoyable time. He declared the supper and service served by the good women of Dover exceeded in rarity and elegance anything that he has attended in his life, and that the Masons and their families are entitled to the highest praise for their profuse hospitality. There were 159 persons at the banquet and members of the Order were present from a dozen surrounding towns. Messrs. Charles E. Curran and W. E. Dunham were also present.

Quarterly Court

In the Mason County Quarterly Court yesterday Judge W. H. Rice disposed of the follow ing actions-

R. C. Tucker against Equitable Coal Company; judgment for defendant-$70.

J. W. Lee against William Griffith; judgment for plaintiff-$30.

R. M. Wallingford against J. H. Harps & Company; judgment for plaintiff-$35.

Several juvenile cases were disposed of in a paternal manner. Judge Rice has a peculiar and satisfactory way, original with himself, in controlling fractious javeniles.

Carpet Time NOW!

Bring us the measurements of your room and we will cut the carpet while you wait. We are the only store in Maysville that carries a large stock of Brussels, Velvets and Axminster Carpets in Stock.

By carrying these Carpets by the roll we are able to save you about 20%, as the jobbers charge this difference for cutting carpets by orders. We buy direct from the manufacturers, who only sell carpets by the roll. A beautiful selection of patterns now on display, all this season's designs. You get what you buy here.

Rugs

Don't buy rugs by the price only, for the price is soon forgotten when the rug is faded away. Don't buy rugs at half price, for half price means half value. Good rugs do not often sell for less than they are worth, and honest rugs are not advertised every day for less than they are worth. We have now in stock brand new rugs that are priced from

$1 to $35

And these are the "TRUE PRICES." They cannot be sold for any lower price, for to do so would leave both the manufacturer and the merchant without profit. They cannot be valued at higher prices, for THE PRICE IS THE VALUE IN THIS STORE. But rugs that are equal in grade and pattern cannot be found anywhere at prices anywhere near so low.

The meeting is on in earnest, and the prayers and efforts of Preachers and members are being rewarded in seeing glorious resultssinners coming to the altar, accepting Christ and joining the Church.

Some of us last evening were reminded of campmeeting times, as we saw the joy of pa and Ruth, have returned from Rock Island, rents and friends over their loved ones being saved. Shouts of joy were in evidence.

Rev. Smith preached a very earnest sermon from the question, "Where Art Thou?" From the fall of man God has been inquiring for him Mr. John McCarahan of Cottageville is visit- and trying to woo him back to Himself by His great love and grace.

> Two young men responded to the invitation, came to the altar, confessed their sine and were converted. And so the revival goes on.

BUSINESS MEN'S CLUB

Progress Made Towards Boosting Maysville

While there was not such a large gathering of members present at last night's session of the Maysville Business Men's Club, yet the said District. score or more there were earnest and enthusiastic in their endeavors to give Maysville the

In the absence of President Browning, Mayor Lee took the chair and conducted the meeting with his usual courtesy and dispatch.

Secretary Holton Key read the minutes of the last meeting; also the minutes of the meetings of the Executive Committee regarding the location of the Gebhardt flouring mill here, all of which were approved.

Secretary Key said that dues amounting to $625 had been paid, some few refusing to re- If It's ROOKWOOD spond, but the sum total of things was most favorable. Mr. Key read communications from various enterprises hunting a location, viz: a big iron foundry for the manufacture of radiators, with a weekly payroll of $2,700, the proposition coming from Lancaster, O.

The concern is a big thing and the party guarantees to put in $50,000, provided $150,000

The question of a tobacco stemmery was discussed at length and on motion the Chair appointed Captain H. J. Cochran, C. R. Devine and E. L. Manchester to take the matter up with the A. T. Co. and the other warehouses.

The status of the Gebhardt flour mill is that the Committee has secured a bandsome site at Third and Poplar streets at a cost of $1,000 and the parties agree to put up a first class mill this summer.

Mr. Wikoff stated that Maysville parties atill have the intention of erecting a $40,000 mill and elevators in East End and that the C. and O. had agreed to put in a side track on their land.

Mr. Joseph H. Dodson made several talks opposing the gift of $1,000 for a small flour mill on the ground that it was unfair to Mr. Carr, and the speaker, who is well posted on these matters, went into details and explained that Maysville wanted new enterprises and he did not favor paying strangers bonuses to come here and compete with our home merchants.

Secretary Key explained in detail the matters before the Club, including numerous factories and other enterprises which he was trying to

With "Bawths" Engaged by Candidate for Railroad Commissioner

PARIS, KY., March 14th-As if anticipating long-drawn-out contest for the Republican nomination for Railroad Commissioner from the Third Railroad District, Hon Green Garrett of Winchester, one of the leading candidates, was here today and engaged a suite of sixteen rooms at the Windsor Hotel.

The convention, which meets in the city on Wednesday, May 3d, promises to bring together the biggest crowd of Republicans that will gather this year, excepting, of course, the Republican State Convention.

The nomination for Railroad Commissioner being equivalent to an election in the Third Railroad District, the scramble to get the job among a half dozen prominent candidates promises to be a hot affair from start to finish
